

 Greg Ceccarelli
*Chief Product Officer
Pluralsight*

Greg Ceccarelli is the Chief Product Officer (CPO) at Pluralsight, Inc., the leading technology workforce development company that helps companies and people around the world transform with technology. In his role, Greg drives continuous innovation and advancement across the company's tech skill development products.

Greg's appointment to CPO comes after serving two years as Executive Vice President and General Manager of Pluralsight Flow, Pluralsight's software delivery intelligence tool. Widely known as an analytical and results-driven leader passionate about improving the developer experience, Greg is uniquely positioned to drive Pluralsight's product innovation and deliver increased value to the company's customers. He brings more than a decade of technology, strategic, and operational leadership expertise to the company from leading Silicon Valley technology companies, such as Google, Dropbox, and GitHub.

Most recently, Greg was the Director of Data Science at GitHub, the largest and most advanced development platform in the world, where he was responsible for the company's machine learning pipeline and spearheaded the creation of developer community products, including the Annual State of the Octoverse Studies and The Good Day Project.

Greg holds a master's degree in information and data science from UC Berkeley and a bachelor's degree in economics from The American University.
